We aim to bring the best in textile solutions to the fashion world.

What we do

With over 70 years of experience in the industry, we truly understand what it takes to support our customers in the best possible way. Our mission is to simplify the entire process — not only for our clients, but also for our suppliers, by acting as a reliable right hand to all parties involved. Our goal is to take the extra workload off your shoulders, so you can focus on what matters most.

How we work

We are based in our office in Sweden.
Throughout the year, we travel across the country to meet clients — both through private meetings and by organizing our own Domestic Fair. We also visit Italy several times annually to meet with our suppliers to maintain strong, professional collaborations. In addition, we attend international trade shows such as Première Vision in Paris and Milano Unica in Milan, ensuring we stay present and connected on all fronts.

Our team

Kikki Boman, CEO and Sales Manager, who brings long-standing industry experience and clear strategic direction.
Patric Johansson, Sales Manager, with a sharp eye for customer needs and relationship-building.
Tara Boman, who combines administrative precision with a strong sales mindset.
Together, we manage all aspects of Boman Trading.
